The participant must be author of the contributed fotos and voice recording, the participant may only send in his own photos and recording. Contributions cannot be returned.

By participation the participant or the parents or legal partners of participant allow Yvonne Lee Schultz (YLS), to document, edit, exhibit, publish (also through third parties), and to commercially utilize (e.g. for the purpose of covering the project cost) the contribution.

The photos and the audio recording will be published online and in print, in exhibitions and catalogs, printed as postcards, flyers, art prints and posters, and may be used in products (such as clothing and accessories) accompanying any of the artist's future artworks and documentations. Additionally, the sky photos will be edited and produced as flags that are exhibited individually or jointly, and among other things e.g. be printed and presented online as in an app, social media, on the website as a mosaic or single pictures and as above mentioned. Also the audio recordings will be edited and exhibited individually or jointly, in total or extracts and among other possibilities e.g. be presented on the website, online, in social media, an app or in public space or at further exhibitions of the artist or documentations.

Given the global scope of the project and the planned realizations at various locations and in different media, the permission to YLS to use the participant's contribution is granted free of charge, and without limit of time and place which means for ever and everywhere. It cannot be guaranteed that the contribution of the participant will be utilized.

A contribution not chosen for ONE SKY FLAGS this time may be chosen for a future realization.

While ONE SKY FLAGS is an art piece in character, project fees and costs need to be covered, that means promotion is required.

By taking part in this art project, the participant assigns the usage rights for the contribution exclusively to YLS. The participant will be named on the project's website or the corresponding leaflet. For the protection of personal rights for participants under 18 years of age, only the first name should be used throughout the contribution.

Cancellation of participation is possible, except once a catalogue, flags or further materials are in the process of being printed, they cannot be revoked. Contact: Yvonne Lee Schultz, Brunnenstr. 37, 10115 Berlin.

With sending in a contribution as an adult participant, the participant agrees to these terms of participations.

I am adult and I agree to the terms by sending in my contribution. Read and Approved.

For under 18-year old participants the signature of the document of a parent or a legal guardian is necessary.

By signing this form, the parent or legal guardian allows the child to participate and agrees to the conditions.

I am signing for the child with the Name: _____

City and date: _____

Parents' or Legal guardian's name (in print letters) and signature: _____
